

MILAN EXCHANGE

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1887.

OVER THE COUNTY.

GIBSON GLEANINGS.

Editor Exchange:

The entertainment given by the Gibson High School last Friday evening was a complete success in every respect and a literary treat for all present. Prof. Shaw is to be congratulated not only for his success as an instructor and disciplinarian, but especially for his success in conducting literary and rhetorical work.

The Humboldt Messenger has again exchanged hands, partly. Mr. H. W. Stratton, after sitting on the tripod three or four days, sold his interest to Mr. A. S. Jessop, an experienced newspaper man. Again, we wish the new management great prosperity and usefulness.

The calaboose at Humboldt was burned Monday night, when two negro prisoners came near being cremated. It is thought that they set fire to it to make their escape, which one of them succeeded in doing.

Wm. Parker, son of the late Henry Parker, dec'd, was kicked in the side by a mule last Tuesday, at Nathan Parker's, about six miles west of here. He was dangerously hurt.

DIED.

Mr. John J. Burrow, one of the oldest and best citizens of Carroll county, died at his residence, about eight miles southeast of Milan, last Sunday morning, of paralysis. He was about seventy years of age, and had been partially paralyzed for two or three years, but was able to get around. He was in town last Wednesday attending to some business and had his fatal stroke after his return home. He was a very charitable, Christian man, and had, it is said, never turned away from his door any one who applied for food. He was the widow's and the orphan's friend, and when that is said we believe it is the best epitaph any man could ask to be placed on his tomb. His memory will remain green with hundreds of people, all of whom regret his death.

Awake for 1888.
